A rear view of the Bureau shows the old wall built by Lewis Robison.

the deed from me to Brigham Young for Bridger's ranch, with all the papers mentioned in said deed attached, the following being a copy. This indenture made the 18th of July.

It is interesting to note that John Taylor, President of the Mormon Church, returned to Robison this indenture that he had signed and given to Brigham Young in 1877. This deed was only recognized by the Church and had no legality in the courts or on the records of the territory. This is why in a letter concerning the deed dated 22 January 1878, Robison said, "With this understanding that the deed be returned to me, as I understand it, it has not been

Fort Bridger p 163